

2026-2027 Quota

Q1. Student quota: number of exchange students you can accommodate from Waseda University in the academic year 2026-2027 (please refer to the agreement)

3 students

General Information

Q1. Full name of your institution in English

The University of Washington (Seattle)

Q2. Brief introduction of your institution (up to 200 words) and the URL

The University of Washington is located in Seattle, on a beautifully green campus about 10 minutes away from downtown. The UW has earned an international reputation for its research and graduate programs in a host of disciplines, as well as its professional schools of Law, Medicine, and Nursing, among others. It is a leader in a variety of fields and was one of the first universities in the US to foster Asian studies, over a hundred years ago. Research is of great benefit to the broader community, and undergraduates benefit by learning from professors who are at the forefront of generating new knowledge. UW's graduate programs are among the most highly rated in the nation.

UW Japan Studies <https://jsis.washington.edu/japan/>

The Henry M. Jackson School of International Studies is an internationally recognized leader in advancing the understanding of and engagement in world issues. As one of the oldest and largest schools in the country to offer undergraduate and graduate degrees in international and area studies, we are dedicated to teaching and research that impact nations, communities, educators, and individuals. On this foundation the Jackson School builds community - not only for students but also faculty and staff – by collaborating with units across the University on high-impact learning.

The UW Japan Studies Program is a campus-wide center of funding supporting teaching, research, and students engaged in Japan Studies across many disciplines and is dedicated to furthering the understanding and knowledge of Japan. In partnership with the Jackson School the UW Japan Studies Program is the administrative home to the Waseda GLFP.

Q3. Categories of exchange students you will accept (e.g., undergraduate students with 2 semesters completed, graduate students, master's students, doctoral students)

Undergraduate only.

Current Waseda University students are invited to apply for the Global Leadership Program. Waseda students accepted to the program may enroll in Jackson School courses and will be a part of the Jackson School community but are encouraged to enroll in classes specific to their majors, and electives specific to the student's interests. Students will benefit from personalized advising through the Jackson School of International Studies, the UW Study Abroad office, and the department related to their major.

Q4. Do you admit undergraduate students without prior studies in the relevant disciplines?

Some upper-level courses have prerequisites; admittance is at the discretion of the instructor and/or the department.
